

Project Submission Guidelines

CMPE58I - Human-inspired Machine Intelligence

Report Format

The report format can be summarized with the elements already put in this template: <https://www.overleaf.com/latex/templates/bsf-report-template/wpgttyhytsng>. It is strongly recommended that you learn to use Latex (preferably over overleaf.com). Select an appropriate title for your paper. Make sure that you mark your name (if group work, include multiple names) and affiliation/s clearly. The paper can be organized as follows. These section and subsection names are only suggestions and by no means should be taken strictly to be followed.

- Abstract

A brief summary of the paper's goals, methods, results, and conclusion.

- Introduction

Background or Context

Problem Statement

- Appendix (if necessary)

- Supplementary Material (e.g., raw data, additional figures, or source code).

Submission

Here are the contents of the submission package.

- Your report based on the format disclosed in this document (see above)
- Source code.
- Any data source, links documented as references in your report. If not available online, zip/compress it within your submission.
- Presentation slides

Please zip/compress all these documents into a single file before submission. Submitted compressed file must contain your name, your ID and the semester in which you are enrolled in the class (e.g. name_lastname_ID_Fall2024.zip). Submissions must be made over Moodle unless upload file size limits block you from proper uploading. In that case, I urge you to send the compressed file to my email suayb.arslan@bogazici.edu.tr.
